

THE FOX AND THE LEMUR

By Bao Ling Huang

There is a Lemur who lives in the woods. His name is King Julian. He is very cute. He likes to eat fruit. King Julian and his Lemur friends like to be noisy. Sometimes, they will give you “the stare.” They are funny looking animals.

In the same woods, there lives a Fox. Her name is Mia. She looks like a Shiba Inu. Her fur and tail keep her warm. Mia’s tail is beautiful. She likes to eat fruit and meat. Mia and her fox friends act crazy sometimes. They are a wild bunch of foxes.

One nice day Mia was taking a walk in the woods. She saw King Julian swinging on a tree.

Mia asked, “What is your name?”

He said, “My name is King Julian. What is your name?”

Mia said, “My name is Mia. How are you swinging on the tree?”

King Julian said, “I have strong arms. And I love climbing trees and swinging.”

Suddenly there was a big storm and the Lemur was scared. Mia told him to follow her to a nice warm cave until the storm passed.

Mia and King Julian told stories to each other during the storm. King Julian began to feel better.

After the storm, King Julian said, “Thank you for helping me. Now we are friends.”

Help each other when there is trouble.
