

THE CAT AND HORSE

Alan Russo

Tillie, the Cat, and Igual, the Horse, were friends. All the other animals on the farm were mean to them.

Tillie, the Cat, said, "You are nice and not nasty like the other animals."

Igual, the Horse, said, "Tillie, you are nice too."

Then Igual said, "I hear someone crying."

Tillie said, "Let's go to the field and look."

They heard a calf crying. Tillie and Igual searched for the missing calf, and found him connected to a fence. He was hurt.

Igual said to the calf, "What is your name?"

The calf said, "My name is Oreo."

Tillie said, "Don't worry, we will help you."

They saved him. They all became friends.

---

People who help each other can become friends.
Friends always have your back.