

THE CAT AND THE HORSE

Jacob Carrillo

It was a cold wet night. There was a Cat in the middle of the road. It was just sitting minding his own business and out of nowhere there came a Horse.

And the Horse said "Get out of my way; you should not be in the middle of the road."

Then the Cat said, "You should watch where you are going."

Then the Horse said, "You should look before you walk because if you don't you will get hurt."

The Cat said, "Aww that's nice of you to really say that to me. People would usually just try to beat me."

The Cat looked up at the sky and said, "Here comes a storm."

It started raining badly.

When the rain stopped, the Horse said, "Are you okay?"

And the Cat said, "I don't feel good. Maybe we can find someone to give me something to feel better."

---

When you observe others and listen to others, all your anger goes away, and you can help the other person.