

THE CAT AND THE HORSE

Elisa Lopez

In the middle of the night in the countryside, I was walking down the road. It was a warm night.

I saw a big Horse and a Cat with spots like a Leopard walking down the road.

The Cat said to the Horse, "Meow." Then the Cat was screaming, "Get away from me."

The Horse said, "Get away from me."

A storm broke out with thunder and lightning. The Cat got scared.

The Horse told the Cat, "Let's move."

The Cat said, "I am frightened."

Sometimes, when you tell someone how you feel, even an enemy, he/she will help you. And sometimes he/she can become your friend.
