

THE HORSE AND THE CAT

Ryan Caplan

When I was stepping on a tree branch, as I walked through the woods, I heard people walking and talking.

Then a Horse and Cat came down the country road.

The Horse said to the Cat, "Giddy-up, giddy-up."

The Cat said to the Horse, "Meow, meow."

The wind started blowing. The sky got dark.

The Horse said, "Let's go find shelter."

The Cat said, "I am so cold and freezing."

Then the next morning the sun came out.
